

Bristol BS98 1LL

April 2005

Dear Owner/Occupier,

OFFICIAL WARNING - THIS PROPERTY IS UNLICENSED

You are hereby notified that we have authorised officers from our Enforcement Division to visit your home and interview you under caution, as our records show there is still no TV Licence at this address and as yet we have received no response to previous communications from you.

Your statement will be taken in compliance with the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984*, and is the first step in our action to prosecute if we find evidence that you watch or record television without a valid licence.

I feel it is my duty to inform you that if found guilty, you could receive a maximum fine of £1000, and your name will be added to our National Enforcement Database. We take this offence very seriously and last month alone we prosecuted 35,975 people.

To avoid an appearance in court before a magistrate I would strongly advise you to call 0870 240 3210 or buy a TV Licence online at www.tvlicensing.co.uk

Yours faithfully,

Miles Caines
TV Licensing Enforcement Manager

Please see reverse for important TV Licensing information, including exclusions and how to pay.

A TV Licence currently costs £126.50 for colour and £42 for black and white.

*In Scotland, interviews and cautions are made in line with Scottish criminal law.
